Gallio, Venice and Berlin. These Places represent the life and the career of Gitta Schilling, a mannequin, who is called a top model nowadays. A trip through the memories and the adventures of a beauty immortalized by F.C. Gundlach, one of the most talented and successful photographer of the fifties and sixties. The simple, disarming beauty of a woman who can be bewitching woman with class, style and charm, is the trump card that made the mannequin Gitta Schilling, from the very beginning, an icon of grace and sophistication that are difficult to match.
